

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells all about it absolutely free by mail.

Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Swamp-Root Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Write mentioning this advertisement in this paper.

Don't make a mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the head dress, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Badly Shattered Nerves and Weak Heart.

Too Nervous to Sleep or Rest.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nerve Cure Me.

A shattered nervous system, nearly always leads to some affection of the heart, especially where the patient's heart is weak from hereditary or other causes. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is not only a great heart regulator, but it is a blood tonic, which speedsily corrects and regulates the heart's action, enriches the blood and improves the circulation. It will build you up just as it did Mr. Crawford whose letter follows, and greatly improve your general health.

"I have been so greatly benefited by Dr. Miles' Nerve and Heart Cure that I freely recommend it as the best remedy for the disease. It is recommended to cure. When I began taking these medicines I weighed scarcely 140 pounds, my nerves were badly shattered, and my heart troubled me a great deal. I had pain in my left arm and shoulder, had difficulty in sleeping on my left side, had frequent smothering spells and my heart would flutter and palpitate. I could eat scarcely any kind of food without suffering great distress, and was so restless and nervous that I slept little night after night. Now I am much better, and my heart is good, my nerves are steady as a die, I sleep well, eat well and weigh 160 pounds. I am happy now and am trying to make back the money I spent for doctors who did me no good while I was ill."—L. R. CRAWFORD, Center, Texas.

BLACK-DRAUGHT STOCK and POULTRY MEDICINE

Stock and poultry have few troubles which are not bowel and liver irregularities. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is a bowel and liver remedy for stock. It puts the organs of digestion in a perfect condition. Prominent American breeders and farmers keep their herds and flocks healthy by giving them an occasional dose of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine in their food. Any stock raiser may buy a 25-cent half-pint airtight can of this medicine from his dealer and keep his stock in vigorous health for weeks. Dealers generally keep Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine. If you do not, send 25 cents for a sample can to the manufacturer, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Respectfully, Geo. T. Benson, 1902.
Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is the best I ever tried. Our stock was looking bad when you sent me the medicine and now they are getting so fine. They are looking 20 percent better.

FATHER AND SON

(Copyright, 1902, by C. B. Lewis.)
When Jabon Lee had been a widower a year and a half he straightened up in the corral one day and said to his son Jonah, who was hoeing the next row on his right:

"Jonah, folks is sayin' that I ought to git married ag'in."

"Yes, I've heard 'em say so," replied the son.

"And bein' as folks think I ought to git married ag'in, and bein' I don't want my children to say they was neglected, I think I'll drop over and see the Widder Spooner this evenin'."

Jonah had been courting Widder Spooner himself for the last three months.

That evening Jabon Lee set out on a courting expedition, while Jonah, who did not dress up at all, was also absent from the house a couple of hours and reached home only five minutes before his father. On the next night his father stayed home and Jonah went abroad.

It got to be a regular thing for Jabon Lee to call on the Widder Spooner every Wednesday evening. Some one hidden behind the fence threw stones at him on three or four occasions, and once he caught sight of a man skulking about in the darkness. All of a sudden one day he got an idea. It was an idea that made him catch his breath and lift his right fist in the air and shake it and mutter to himself:

"By gum, but that seems to explain it! If it's so, I'll make Jonah tired clear up to his chin."

The idea was developed that very evening. When Jonah changed his clothes and took a walk the father followed him and kept a hot trail to the Widder Spooner's. The murder was out and the mystery solved. The parlor curtains had not been lowered, and the father crept up and saw that his rival made himself very much at home on the very chair he himself had occupied the night before. Two hours later, as the son whizzed by his ear and a ghostly yell from the darkness jumped him six feet. Next day, while his hair was still curling and he was trying to connect that yell with his father's deep bass voice, the old man suddenly turned on him with:

"Jonah, if you was courtin' a woman and a sneak of a feller tried to sneak himself in, what would you do?"

"I'd lay for him," promptly replied the son.

"That's jest my way o' thinkin'. Yes, sir; I'd lay for him and lick him till he couldn't toller."

"Drat such sneaks!"

Father and son looked into each other's eyes for a moment, and each dissembled and tried to look innocent. They understood each other, however, and both set their jaws as they went on with their work. That night was Jonah's night to go courting, and he left the house he took notice that his father was missing. He realized at once what that night to the Widder Spooner's carried him over a bridge spanning a deep creek near her house. There were trees near the north end, making a deep shadow for many yards, and Jonah felt that his father would wait for him there and play some trick. He therefore removed his boots when he was yet twenty yards away and approached the spot with catlike tread.

It may be stated in advance that the father was there in the shadow. He had a sheet ready to wrap around him and a pillow case ready to pull over his head. He was not only going to play ghost, but the ghost would do some thumping before Jonah could get away. In that same deep, dark shadow was a second party. It was an old lame mule which had been turned out to get his living beside the highway, and he had halted at that spot that night to ruminate and doze. He stood within twenty feet of the man in ambush, but made no noise to give himself away. In fact, he took no interest whatever in the proceedings for a time, realizing that he had passed the age when he should be mixed up in love adventures, and it was not until his long ears detected the approach of Jonah that his eyes shook off sleep and he wondered what was up. Jonah crept forward foot by foot, and at last his presence was also detected by the father. With softness of touch he got ready his ghostly garments and was on the point of donning them and making a rush when the old mule raised his head, dipped his ears and uttered a long, low wailing cry that split the air with thunderous sound and made things shake for rods around. The awful and unexpected sound stirred the "ghost" and Jonah to action at the same instant. They went over the railing of the bridge and into the waters of the creek almost together, and both yelling the same yell.

Five minutes later father and son reached the bank together and pulled themselves out. As they stood gasping and dripping they recognized each other, and the father shouted:

"Jonah, durn yer hide, but I'll 'fist'—"

"Dad, you old hypocrite, I'll 'fist'—" choked the son.

At that moment the widow opened her door and came down the path. She had heard the bang and the yell and thought some traveler had met with an accident. She saw the two men before her, with the mule looking down at them over the railing of the bridge, and her woman's wit told her what had occurred. She laughed loud and long as they cowered before her and ended the laugh by remarking:

"I guess both of you better trot home-ward and go to bed. You may git the ager!"

Stepped Against a Hot Stove.
A child of Mrs. Geo. T. Benson, when getting his usual Saturday night bath, stepped back against a hot stove which burned him severely. The child was in great agony and his mother could do nothing to pacify him. Remembering that she had a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the house, she thought she would try it. In less than half an hour after applying it the child was quiet and asleep, and in less than two weeks was well. Mrs. Benson is a well-known resident of Keilar, Va. Pain Balm is an anodyne liniment and especially valuable for burns, cuts, bruises and sprains. For sale by all druggists.

surgeon Paine,
Rheumatism, lumbago and sciatic pains yield to the penetrating influence of Ballard's Snow Liniment. It penetrates to the nerves and bone and being absorbed into the blood, its healing properties are conveyed to every part of the body, and effect some wonderful cures.

True wealth does not exist in the faults and deficiencies of others.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR CROUP.
(From the Atchison, Kan., Daily Globe.)

This is the season when the woman who knows the best remedies for croup is in demand in every neighborhood. One of the most terrible things in the world is to be awakened in the middle of the night by a whoop from one of the children. The croup remedies are almost sure to be lost, in case of croup, as a revolver is sure to be lost in case of burglars. There used to be an old-fashioned remedy for croup, known as hive syrup and tulu, but some modern mothers say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better and does not cost as much. It causes the patient to "throw up the phlegm" quicker, and gives relief in a shorter time. Give this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears and it will prevent the attack. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

Chance gives us relations, but we must make our friends.

Best Liniment on Earth.
Henry D. Baldwin, Superintendent City Water Works, Shullsburg, Wis., writes: "I have tried many kinds of liniment, but I have never received much benefit until I used Ballard's Snow Liniment for rheumatism and pains. I think it the best liniment on earth." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by J. M. Jones.

Character is always written in indelible ink on a man's face.

Cured Consumption.
Mrs. B. W. Evans, Clearwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said that he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago. Since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by J. M. Jones.

A crying wife is better than a hair-pulling one.

Constipation.
Health is absolutely impossible, if constipation be present. Many serious cases of liver and kidney complaint have sprung from neglected constipation. Such a deplorable condition is unnecessary. There is a cure for it. Herbine will speedily remedy matters. C. A. Lindsay, P. M. Brownson, Fla., writes, Feb. 12, 1902: "Having tried Herbine, I find it a fine medicine for constipation." 50c bottle. Sold by J. M. Jones.

Many a gift is only intended as an investment.

For a Bad Cold.
If you have had cold you need a good reliable medicine like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to loosen and relieve it, and to allay the irritation and inflammation of the throat and lungs. For sale by all druggists.
